Recent studies in, Psychology Today found that, "Children who have an involved father are more likely to be emotionally secure, be confident to explore their surroundings, and, as they grow older, have better social connections. Numerous studies find that an active and nurturing style of fathering is associated with better verbal skills, intellectual functioning, and academic achievement among adolescents." And George Herbert confirms, "One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters."

Father's Day is the perfect time to celebrate the loving and caring men in your life. Whether it's your dad, uncle, brother, grandpa; anyone who has been a father figure to you, make sure you express your love and gratitude for him on Sunday, June 19th. Let him know how much you appreciate his priceless guidance and advice, unconditional support, and love.

If your father has passed on and is not around to celebrate, you can still honor him with your prayers as love that has been given and received can never be lost. If your father is alive but absent or you do not have positive relationships or views of fatherhood, you can still honor a grandfather or male mentor.

Think of a man who has positively influenced your life (such as a teacher, coach, or pastor) and bless him this Father's Day remembering his expressions of love for you.

I will guide you in the ways of wisdom and I will lead you in upright paths. When you walk, your steps will not be hampered, and when you run, you will not stumble. Proverbs 4:11-12

Beginning with Father's Day, our Sunday messages will explore the divine masculine. Join us as we uncover the metaphysical symbolism of Joseph, Moses, and Noah and see how they reveal a consciousness of wisdom and guidance that we can integrate into our own lives.

On Making Dreams Into Reality

The Aitareya Upanishad expresses poetically the idea that we have the power to create ourselves and our experience of the world:

“We are like the spider. We weave our life and then move along in it. We are like the dreamer who dreams and then lives in the dream.”

These lines suggest that what we experience in life is rather like a dream of our own making. Certainly whatever beliefs, imaginings, and feelings we have -- into which we put our faith and energy – can shape what we experience as our reality.

One may believe, or not, that (in the words of the old song) “Life is but a dream”. Either way, it is surely worth the try to use the power of our minds to transport us into the future we would like to build for ourselves and our community.

We can try to imagine the best in all others, trusting that there is good within them even when we can't see it “yet”. We can imagine that Highest Self in others and respond to it as if it was manifest – helping others to discover it for themselves, inspired by our higher vision.

At the same time, we can see our own Highest Self, too – knowing it is the deepest and most fundamental part of who we are. Through faith in the power of our belief, we can bring forth our highest and best self in every situation.

When we are challenged, we can take a moment to imagine ourselves overcoming the challenge. We can remind ourselves: “Deep inside, I am strong. I am wise. I am compassionate and kind. I am loving. I am transforming myself and my world through the power of the Divine expressing through me.” For so we are – and so we will be!

Sweet dreams to you – the dreamer, and the doer. In you and through you, the power of divine creation is always at work! In your dreams, your imaginings, and your thoughts, you hold the tools to build a better world.

Frontiers of Consciousness

This class is being offered in person and on Zoom June 27, 2022. The topic will be Brain Plasticity. If you would like to attend, please send an email to Jacob Walker at Unity of Auburn needs a volunteer to administer our Facebook Live Stream and run the audio-video equipment on Sundays. If you have been looking for a new way to support your ministry, this could be just for you! It is a great job for co-coordinators, so if you and a friend, or friends, would like to split the duties that's also a good option. Please talk to Dave Langley if you are interested. This is one of our most important volunteer positions, so please give it some strong consideration. No prior knowledge of training is necessary. We will be happy to train you on the job.

Misc.....Time for Tea . . .

Board of Directors

Natalie Kimball

It has been a busy and exciting six months since Rev. Cherie Larkin joined us as senior minister. We have made great strides behind the scenes that you will begin to see manifested increasingly.

We have:

- Revamped and improved the Sunday Celebration Service Order
- Redone the stage to make it more attractive for both those present and those online
- Raised enough money to complete the purchase of critical audio-visual equipment to improve our live stream and allow us to switch to streaming on YouTube
- Identified a source of funds to pay for a seal coat for our roof to prevent further leaks
- Worked to upgrade our website and Facebook pages
- Set in motion plans to expand the footprint of the Thrift Store
- Completed tenant improvements for our renters
- Completed several over-due repairs to plumbing and fixtures

Next steps will include all of you as we work to form the teams, we envisioned in the planning document we shared with you at the annual meeting. Key needs include a Budget/Finance team (to include fundraising), Care and Concern Team and Music Team.

It is with mixed emotions and a tremendous sense of gratitude that we bid farewell to our Thrift Store Management Team. Bonnie Neuman and Tee Divine have done a masterful job in managing the store and have increased revenue by 80%! They have had a lot of help from Margarita (Maggie) McCown who will assume the duties as Thrift Store Manager.

Our (not so) Mother's Day Tea is back! We have tentatively scheduled it for September 10th. We will also be hosting our Fall Bingo Night near Halloween. We will use all caution and continue to follow Placer County guidelines regarding Covid restrictions, if any, for these events.

Watch for announcements on classes to be offered by Rev. Cherie in the coming months. And finally, a reminder that we need two more Board members. Our beloved Bill Hamre will be moving away in July, so we need to fill that seat and we still have one remaining open seat. I can tell you from experience that serving on the Board of this wonderful ministry is a blessing. I hope you will step up.

With blessing to all, Natalie
