Beloved Unity Community,

As we step into this New Year together, I offer my deepest gratitude for each of you and for the light you bring to our spiritual family. This turning of the calendar invites us to begin again. As we shared in our burning Bowl ritual, you are invited to release what no longer serves, and to consciously choose love, wisdom, and possibility.

May this year open you to a deeper awareness of abundance in all its forms—love, vitality, creativity, meaningful work, and material support. May you remember that Spirit's good is limitless, and that as we align our thoughts, hearts, and actions with Truth, we naturally participate in a life of sufficiency and flow. May you be blessed with clarity of purpose, courage of heart, and a deep knowing of the Divine Presence moving in and through your life.

I look forward to all we will discover, heal, and create together in the year ahead.

With love and blessings,
Rev Cherie

Misc.

A large, elegant, black cursive script that reads "thank you" is centered on a light gray background with a subtle checkered pattern. The text is written in a flowing, handwritten style with decorative loops at the beginning and end.

Thank you to our incredible volunteer, Ruby Evers, who organizes and transports our donations to the Auburn Interfaith Food Closet. And a big heartfelt thank you to all our donors. Your generosity and care serve as a blessing and make a real difference helping to feed families in our Auburn community.

With gratitude,
Rev. Cherie

Happy New Year to all of our Unity members. Most of us take the time each new year to evaluate what we are doing and how we are doing it!! Taking a fresh look at all of our activities is a good thing to do. As you do this I encourage you to take a serious look at your activities and commitment to Unity of Auburn. Being a participant rather than an observer should be the goal for each and every one of us for 2026 and beyond. There are many opportunities for us to participate. Serving as the need arises. I believe we do a good job at responding to specific requests for help.

I encourage all of us to take a serious look at our financial support of our Ministry. It is not good enough to make an offering only when we are in attendance on a Sunday morning. Guess what? Our expenses continue if we are in attendance or not. There is only a hand full of members who have made a financial pledge on a monthly or annual basis. I encourage all of you to consider making such a pledge. Making a pledge using a credit card is a very easy way to do this. A call to the church office providing the card details and the amount of your offering is all it takes.

Stay safe and stay active for this new year.

Regards,

Jim Drews
Treasurer
