The Spiritual Principles of the Parables

In Todd Michael's book, The Hidden

Parables he shares, "A complaint is often heard that Christianity and the sacred passages of scripture have become irrelevant and obsolete in our technologically advanced world – a world with instruments that can see at once to the end of the universe and deep into the subatomic fabric of reality. However, when the true depths of the parable lessons are unlocked, it becomes immediately obvious that their truth easily encompasses even the most advanced concepts of our modern quantum world." Join us for this wonderful study: The Spiritual Principles of the Parables beginning in September.

Biography: Charles Holt an actor, singer, and producer has starred in some of the most celebrated productions in American theater history. Charles has entertained sold-out audiences at The John F. Kennedy Center and has appeared on television and in films. On the music front, Charles' debut album, I Am, garnered rave reviews and was followed by the new classic, Rushing Over Me. Theater performances include Smokey Joe's Café, Jesus Christ Superstar, and The Lion King. He was the first African American to play the role of Rocky in the European tour of The Rocky Horror Show. Charles received widespread recognition for his one-man stage production, notably his 20-character portrayal in Black Boy; The Smoke King; and Never Fight a Shark in Water. He and fellow actor Gerald C. Rivers chronicled the life of Martin Luther King, Jr., through their presentation Martin & Music. He tours colleges, universities, and spiritual centers around the world performing and has addressed many organizations including TEDx, Engaged Diversity Leadership Conference, and NCORE (National Conference on Race and Ethnicity). Intuitive Rebel is his first book. Charles lives in North Carolina but is returning to New York City to renew his Broadway career.

Thank You to Our Maintenance & Grounds Volunteers

We are deeply grateful for your faithful care of our church home. From keeping our grounds welcoming to ensuring our facilities are safe and well-maintained, your quiet, steady service blesses us all. Because of your dedication, our congregation and guests are greeted with beauty, order, and hospitality each time they arrive. Thank you for the love you pour into this ministry of care!

*With sincere gratitude,
Rev. Cherie Larkin & the Board of Trustees*
