

Homecoming Celebration

Our Presenters

Rev. Cherie Larkin

www.unityofauburn.com

Rev. Cherie Larkin is Minister at Unity of Auburn. Widely recognized for her unique and powerful interpretation of universal spiritual principles, she is one of the most listened-to voices for creating an extraordinary life. Ordained by Unity School of Christianity in 2000, she has served twenty-five years in ministries in Kansas City, Nashville, and California, serving Unity of Auburn since 2021. Rev. Cherie also hosts Spiritual Growth Studio, www.CherieLarkin.com, an internet ministry offering a signature collection of spiritual teachings where you can learn to champion your best life.

Charles Holt in Concert October 12th 1:00pm

Charles Holt an actor, singer, and producer has starred in some of the most celebrated productions in American theater history including: Smokey Joe's Café, Jesus Christ Superstar, and The Lion King. He was the first African American to play the role of Rocky in the European tour of The Rocky Horror Show. Charles received widespread recognition for his one-man stage production, notably his 20-character portrayal in Black Boy; The Smoke King; and Never Fight a Shark in Water. He and fellow actor Gerald C. Rivers chronicled the life of Martin Luther King, Jr., through their presentation Martin & Music. Charles has entertained sold-out audiences at The John F. Kennedy Center, and has appeared on television and in films. On the music front, Charles' debut album, I Am, garnered rave reviews and was followed by the new classic, Rushing Over Me. He tours colleges, universities, and spiritual centers around the world performing and has addressed many organizations including TEDx, Engaged Diversity Leadership Conference, and NCORE (National Conference on Race and Ethnicity). Intuitive Rebel is his first book. Charles lives in North Carolina but is returning to New York City to renew his Broadway career. Concert tickets are $15 in advance online at www.unityofauburn.com or $20 the day of.